

Competitiveness Council in Luxembourg

The Competitiveness Council is composed of the Economic Affairs, Industry and/or Research Ministers of the EU Member States. The Council typically meets formally four times a year and deals with issues such as internal market issues, industry and scientific research. It also deals with matters ranging from tourism to better regulation and certain aspects of consumer affairs and competition.