

Belgium dances... in Antwerp

On Saturday 3 July, in the early evening, the whole of Belgium is invited to come together and dance, by learning a dance routine which will be performed simultaneously in 12 Belgian cities (Antwerp, Bruges, Brussels, Charleroi, Eupen, Ghent, Hasselt, Liège, Leuven, Louvain-la-Neuve, Namur and Tournai).

A small dance course, free and open to all at a country-wide level, as part of events marking the opening of the Belgian Presidency of the European Union Council.
